Vice President, Legal and Corporate Secretary Toronto

Our client, Sofina Foods Inc., is one of Canada's leading food manufacturers. With 3000 employees, 15 facilities across Canada and the northwest United States and a marketplace which spans Canada, the United States and Japan, Sofina Foods combines generations of food processing expertise with the latest in technology to offer a complete line of quality private label and branded products for retail and foodservice customers. Its commitment to innovation through research and development and technology, highly committed and dedicated professionals who are driven by excellence and a strategy of growth through acquisition have all contributed to our client's extraordinary growth.

Our client's ambitious plans to continue to grow through development and acquisition have created a need for a Vice President, Legal and Corporate Secretary. Reporting to the Senior Vice President, Finance and CFO, this position will be responsible for providing expert legal services and policy guidance to all Sofina operations.

As the ideal candidate, you will have 5 to 10 years of corporate and commercial law experience, some of which has been gained in an in-house environment, and preferably some financing and regulatory experience. You are an astute multi-talented lawyer with excellent interpersonal and organizational skills. You possess excellent judgment and you thrive in an entrepreneurial work environment. English/French bilingualism is also an asset but not essential. Offering a competitive compensation package, this is a unique and exciting position filled with opportunity for professional growth with a company poised for further expansion.
