Biography of Alexandre Tavadian

Alexandre Tavadian is a litigator with the Immigration Law Section of the federal Department of Justice in Montreal. He practiced immigration law in the regional offices of Quebec and Ontario. He received his Bachelor of Law and Masters in administrative law from the University of Montreal and his Masters in public international law from the University of Geneva and the Graduate Institute of International Studies. Alexandre taught advanced administrative law to graduate students of the Faculty of Law of the University of Montreal. He is the author of Statutory, Judicial, and Administrative Stays in Immigration Matters, Carswell, 2010.