

THE HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE
STANLEY J. KERSHMAN

The Honourable Mr. Justice Stanley J. Kershman was appointed to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice in 2007.

Prior to his appointment he was a certified specialist in bankruptcy and insolvency law with the Ottawa, Canada firm of Perley-Robertson, Hill & McDougall LLP. He was also a court-connected roster mediator.

Mr. Justice Kershman has had more than 28 years experience in bankruptcy and insolvency law, and has written and lectured extensively on bankruptcy, insolvency and mediation for such audiences as Industry Canada, the Superior Court of Justice and the Law Society of Upper Canada.

He was regularly called upon to provide expert advice in print, radio and television media. He was a legal analyst on CFRA Business at Night with two shows weekly entitled “White Collar Crime – Business & The Law” and “Money Matters with The Debt Doctor”.

Mr. Justice Kershman continues to write the weekly Kershman Bankruptcy & Insolvency NetLetter for Lexis/Nexis that updates the latest bankruptcy and insolvency case law.

Mr. Justice Kershman was responsible for preparing the bankruptcy mediation models for surplus income and bankruptcy discharges for the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy, presently in use throughout Canada.

In addition, Mr. Justice Kershman was a Deputy Judge of the Superior Court of Justice (Small Claims Court), and is a member of the County of Carleton Law Association and Canadian Bar Association.

Mr. Justice Kershman's first book, entitled Credit Solutions: Kershman on Advising Secured and Unsecured Creditors, was published by Carswell Thomson Professional Publishing in 2001. The second edition of this book was released in January, 2008.

Put Your Debt on a Diet: A Step-by-Step Guide to Financial Fitness, published by John Wiley & Sons Ltd., was Mr. Justice Kershman's second book. The American version of Put Your Debt on a Diet: A Step-by-Step Guide to Financial Fitness has also been published.

Mr. Justice Kershman was named Volunteer of the Year for 2006 by the Ontario Bar Assistance Program.
