

CBA MILITARY LAW CONFERENCE

MAY 24, 2018 | OTTAWA, ONTARIO

8:30 – 9:00      REGISTRATION

9:00 – 9:10      OPENING REMARKS

Speaker:          Marin Leci, Chair, CBA Military Law Section

9:10 – 9:50      KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Speaker:          Colonel Robin Holman, Deputy Judge Advocate General, Operational and International Law at Department of National Defence

9:50 – 10:50    CYBER AND INTERNATIONAL LAW – THROUGH A FOREIGN POLICY LENS

The remarks will address the application of international law to cyberspace and the ongoing work of the Government of Canada to engage on cyber issues in a variety of international fora.

Speaker:          Carolyn Knobel, Director General and Deputy Legal Adviser at Global Affairs Canada

10:50 – 11:10    HEALTH BREAK

11:10 – 12:10    INVESTIGATING CYBER UNDER THE CSIS ACT AND BILL C-59, THE CSE ACT AND CYBER OPERATIONS

Karla Unger will address investigating cyber under the CSIS Act.

Martin Michaudville will provide an overview of the CSE's legal regime under the proposed CSE Act (Bill C-59). In particular, Mr. Michaudville will explain the legal framework that will regulate CSE's active and defensive cyber operations, as well as CSE's assistance to the Canadian Armed Forces and the Department of National Defence.

Speakers:          Karla Unger, Senior Counsel at Department of Justice - National Security Litigation and Advisory Group

Martin Michaudville, Counsel at Justice Canada

12:10 – 12:20 AWARD PRESENTATION - MILITARY LAW SECTION ESSAY CONTEST

Sword and Scale 2018 Recipient: Afton Maisonneuve

Speaker: Marin Leci, Chair, CBA Military Law Section

12:20 – 13:20 LUNCH

13:20 – 14:00 ADVISING ON CYBER ACTIVITIES AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

A presentation of some experiences and perspectives.

Speakers: LCol Nancy Isenor, Director of Law/Intelligence & Information Operations at the Office of the Judge Advocate General

Robert M. Young, Legal Counsel at Global Affairs Canada (Criminal, Security and Diplomatic Law Division, Legal Affairs Bureau)

14:00 – 15:00 THE CYBERSECURITY SPECTRUM OF CONCERNS

A presentation that will address a broad range of issues to consider when framing cybersecurity policy and will address several case studies of advanced persistent threats.

Speakers: Dr. Michael Hennessy, Professor and Interim Vice Principal, Research and Dean of Graduate Studies at Royal Military College of Canada

Dr. Scott Knight, Chair of Cybersecurity at Royal Military College of Canada

15:00 – 15:20 HEALTH BREAK

15:20 – 16:00 AN UPDATE ON PROCEDURAL FAIRNESS

A review of the duty of procedural fairness and its application in the military administrative context. How has procedural fairness been addressed in recent jurisprudence? How does it apply to common Canadian Armed Forces administrative processes?

Speakers: Chione Robinson, Legal Counsel at Military Grievances External Review Committee

Tasha Emmerton, Legal Counsel at Military Grievances External Review Committee

16:00 – 16:15 THANK YOU AND CLOSING REMARKS

Speaker: LCdr Ashley Dunn, Incoming Chair, CBA Military Law Section

To obtain accreditation information for the entire conference in each Canadian jurisdiction, please visit:

http://www.cbapd.org/accreditation\_en.aspx?id=NA\_MIL18